

DARE TO GO.

I can speak to my soul only when the two of us are off exploring deserts or cities or mountains or roads.

Monument Valley, Arizona and Utah

37.0042° N, 110.1735° W

Monument Valley is a red-sand desert region perched on the Arizona-Utah border. It is known for the towering sandstone buttes of Monument Valley Navajo Tribal Park. The region is characterized by a cluster of vast sandstone buttes, the largest reaching 1,000 ft above the valley floor. The fragile pinnacles of rock are surrounded by miles of mesas and buttes, shrubs, trees and windblown sand, all comprising the magnificent colors of the valley.
