The Wave : Coyote Buttes, Arizona

36.9956° N, 112.0061° W

The Wave is a sandstone rock formation located in Arizona near the Utah border. The formation is situated on the slopes of the Coyote Buttes in the Colorado Plateau. The area offers several dramatic and photogenic locations including: The Wave, The Second Wave, Top Rock Arch, Melody Arch and the Grotto, the Hooters, The Alcove, Sand Cove, and Fatali's Boneyard. The area is well-known among hikers and photographers for its colorful, undulating forms and the difficult hike required to reach it. Due to the fragile nature of the formation, a daily lottery system is used to award ten next-day permits in person at the Kanab visitor center. Ten additional day permits can be obtained online four months in advance.
